Balancing Saturday At 16 Polling Places; 9 Running for Board

Granite City community unit school district voters will elect three men to three-year terms on the board of education, voting between noon and 7 p.m. Saturday. There are nine candidates.

Polling will be conducted at 16 polling places — the 14 grade schools for residents of their areas, 1307 Madison avenue for Madison city voters and the Long Lake School, 4113 Pontoon road, for Pontoon Beach village residents.

A large turnout is being sought in a continuation of the April 6 vote "get out the vote" drive. Guidelines, outlining recommended qualifications for school board membership, also have been published.

Biographical information and pictures of the candidates are given on Page 40 of today's issue. In Madison and Venice, candidates are unopposed.

Two of the three incumbent Granite City board members whose terms are expiring, Robert Spengler and Ralph Buehler, are retiring from the board. President Daniel N. Linder is seeking re-election as a member.

List of Candidates
The candidates, in the order in which they appear on the ballot, are:

Robert C. Timmins, 44, of 530 Margaret avenue, Mitchell, former of the booming mill slub yard at Granite City Steel Co.

Richard E. Fox, 35, of 2344 Gary avenue, Westinghouse appliance salesman.

Boyd B. Presley, 31, of 2441 St. Clair avenue, Granite City postal clerk.

Frank G. Mehele, 35, Rural Route One, construction truck driver.

Pete Schermer, 70, of 2623 Delmar avenue, retired wholesale and retail grocer and secretary-treasurer of Federal Oil Co.

George E. Moore, 43, of 1929 St. Clair avenue, quality control director of the Granite City Army Depot.

Clifford E. Blankenship, 46, of 2308 Clark avenue, training and safety director of the A. O. Smith Corp.

Rural Area Requirement
At least one candidate from the unincorporated areas — Timmins, Fox, Mehele, Blankenship and Deatherage — must be elected.

Up to three rural candidates could be elected or up to two city residents could win, depending on their vote totals.

Mehele and Presley were candidates last year; and Moore ran for the board in the 1950s.

P-R Will Compile School Vote Results

The Press-Record news staff will compile results of the three school board elections to be held Saturday in the Quad-Cities. Polling places will be open from noon until 7 p.m.

Trends are not expected to be known in Granite City before 8:30 or 9 p.m. There is no opposition for the board posts in the Madison and Venice districts.

Polling place officials are requested to call the Press-Record (TK 6-2000) as soon as their counts are completed so that information may be relayed to interested persons.

This picture was taken about 10:45 p.m. Thousands of telephone queries started at 5:30, before the polls were closed, and continued steadily until the office closed at 1 a.m. News staffers were amazed at the interest shown by youngsters who called wanting election results.

Levee Board Revamps Treatment Plant Plan

Monthly Fee Estimated At $1.15; Bond Issue Reduced by $600,000

A plan to reduce monthly rates, size and costs of the Lansdowne sewage treatment plant was approved yesterday by trustees of the East Side Levee & Sanitary District.

Lawrence Tolter, levee board president, said the changes were prompted by an apparent decision by Swift & Co. and National Stockyards to build their own sewage facilities. F. E. Wisely, consulting engineer, said the district has been trying to get an answer from the plants since 1958 without success.

Original plans in Ordinance 655, repealed yesterday by the board, included provisions for the inclusion of Swift and the Stockyards in the Mississippi River water pollution abatement program. The order banning discharge of untreated domestic sewage and industrial waste into the river was issued June 6, 1962, by the Illinois Sanitary Water Board.

Charge Down 45 Cents
"We are shooting for a minimum rate of $1.15 per month, compared to the old figure of about $1.60," Wisely said. "Other rates will be reduced accordingly." The rates are to be based on water usage and have not yet been determined in detail.

The Lansdowne plant will (Continued on page 13, col. 6)

Smolich, who resides at 3706 Fair Oaks drive, has had some training in month-to-month re-suscitation. Donley reports. He added that some time ago, a number of his friends received instructions in new methods of life-saving using the "Rescue Annie" doll provided by the Quad-City Safety Council.

Constable, Armed Crime, Junkyard Bills Advance
Elimination of the office of constable, which has no duties under the new state court system, was approved by the Illinois Senate Tuesday and sent to Gov. Jenner.

Mandatory penalties ranging from one to 10 years in life imprisonment for committing a crime of violence while armed were passed and sent to the House. Also sent to the House was a bill by Sen. Paul Simon requiring owners of junkyards and auto graveyards to screen them from view with trees or hedges.

SEVENTH OF A SERIES
By Harry A. Barnes
The East Side Levee and Sanitary district, in its endless quest for more and more money to meet the constantly increasing demand of its widespread operations, has carried out more active "legislative" maneuvers than any other taxing district in the history of the entire Madison, St. Clair counties area.

In practically all instances, its campaigns for new legislation in the Illinois House and Senate at which time the House has passed legislation that would have helped fill the levee district's coffers and empty the pockets of the taxpayers.

If such efforts did not involve an outright bid for more money, money concerned politicians would have placed the district in an advantageous position for future benefit.

Key Affiliations
Through its experience in the legislative field and through the aid of key political affiliations with the right people in the right places, the levee district has successfully outlived organized taxpayer and civic groups.

It has turned a deaf ear to suggestions and pleas for more economical operation or more moderate approaches to financial problems that might have been possible at various times.

The district has not always been victorious in its bids for greater financial and political strength, but its very determination to attain the goals it has sought has demonstrated an arrogant lack of concern over the public welfare.

1960 Proposal
An outstanding example of this practice was a "no limit" bill submitted in the Illinois legislature in the summer of 1959 by State Sen. James W. Gray, Democrat of East St. Louis and an attorney for the levee district, and James O. Monroe, Sr., Democrat of Collinsville.

It would have given the levee district a "blank check" to write its own ticket in bond issues for the purpose of financing a Hillside Water Diversion project then being considered by the government.

The bill proposed that the levee district be authorized to levy and collect a tax for the project without any limitation as to rate or amount.

Baby Panama Canal
At that time the project called for construction of a "Baby Panama Canal" along the bluffs rising surrounding the levee district. Its cost some years earlier had been estimated at $17 to $18 million. Gray used this in support of the "no limit" tax clause, contending that it was not known how much the levee district would be able to raise for the project. He said that the district might wind up paying (Continued on page 5, col. 1)

Partney Wins Race For Mayor; Barton New Tax Assessor

Trockler Defeats DeCota; Chouteau Incumbents Veterans

Joseph Trockler, veteran Chouteau township supervisor, and other incumbents officials, overcame a threat from the north half of the township to win re-election Tuesday.

Trockler, 121 to 324 for Joseph Buzar, Mitchell. Incumbents winning over opponents were tax collector Charles Lexow of Mitchell with 1036 to 572 for Robert Crider of Mitchell and 131 for Boswell Lockhart, also of Mitchell, and auditors George Warneke, Mitchell, 1136, Marion Sparks, 1250, and Chetel Bedwell, South Roxana, 1241 to 324 for Joseph Buzar, Mitchell.

Elected without opposition were Otto E. Reeves of South Roxana for assessor with 1340 votes and Walter Sparks of Mitchell for town clerk with 1222 votes.

Precinct Breakdown
A breakdown of votes by precincts, with polls located in the following places: Precinct 1, Hill water garage; Precinct 2, South Roxana fire hall; Precinct 3, Hartford Civic hall; and Precinct 4, township relief office.

Supervisor Trockler, 326, 173, 198 and 328, total 1023; and DeCota 171, 268, 122 and 168, total 729.

Town clerk — Walter Sparks, 380, 256, 254 and 342, total 1232. Auditors — Warneke, 324, 267, 231 and 294, total 1115; Marion Sparks, 373, 265, 259 and 333, total 1229; Bedwell, 354, 229, 233 and 329, total 1245; and Buzar, 146, 38, 29 and 111, total 324.

There were reports of voters complaining that only park district employees were used as judges and workers at the polling place. However, secretary Leroy Rutz said no formal protests have been filed.

Rutz said the poll judges and workers had all worked for the park district at one time or another, and he was unable to secure other qualified volunteers.

At a reorganization meeting Tuesday night, the Venice park board re-elected Obendorf president and John Mitchell vice-president. Reappointed were Marion Grashorn as superintendent, Harry Hartman as attorney, and George Fichte as treasurer.

Low Dacynoy was appointed general foreman for park employees, to serve on a part-time basis. A special meeting has been called for April 21 to consider purchase of a new truck.

SMILE OF VICTORY
NEW MAYOR PARTNEY

Sweeping 17 of the city's 25 precincts, Donald Partney topped his nearest opponent, Van Dee Cruse, by 622 votes to win the six-way race for Granite City office of mayor. The hotly-contested township tax assessor post went to James W. Barton.

Tuesday's sunny 80-degree weather brought out over 14,000 voters who managed to find the city polling places. And 5076 of them voted for Partney, president of Granite Sheet Metal Co., who plans to devote full time to the city's top job.

Cruse, retiring township tax assessor, carried eight precincts with a 4454 vote total; while G. H. Stenberg, Seventh Ward alderman and general contractor, placed third with 2625 votes. Another Seventh Ward member, Alderwoman Gabrielle Bettine, who will be retiring from public office May 3, ran fourth with 1240 votes.

Low student Casper Nicholson placed 300 votes, and Second Ward Alderman Samuel Whimer received 280 votes. Cruse conceded to Partney about 10 p.m., while the final precinct, No. 11 in West Granite, was not tallied until 12:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Closed race at the top of the city ballot was for the city clerk post which went to Homer "Cal" Pendleton, who won by 214 votes over Robert W. Stevens, son of retiring Clerk A. I. Stevens. Pendleton's total was 4882, while Stevens tallied 4688 and Robert Spengler, a retiring school board member, ran third with 3867 votes.

E. R. "Pat" Rich, incumbent city treasurer by appointment, was elected to his post with 4075 votes to defeat Dale Higgins, whose total was 3321.

Township Totals
Top race on the township ballot was a three-way contest for the tax assessor post being vacated by Cruse. James Barton, used car dealer, won over Andrew Gasparovic Jr., retiring magistrate, by 408 votes, polling 4576 compared to 3878 for Gasparovic. Charles W. Moerlein, (Continued on page 14, col. 4)

For the two-year term, Gerald "Jerry" Parmley by 588 votes over his nearest opponent, Thomas Nesbit, in a four-way race. The former Sixth Ward alderman, William McElree, moved out of the city last year, and Sandy Renee, who was appointed to replace McElree, did not choose to run for election.

Chouteau Electors Approve Budgets, Complain of Roads

Chouteau town electors adopted budgets totaling $208,500 during the annual town meeting Tuesday afternoon in the township relief office.

Seventeen electors, including officials, attended, and some objection was voiced by residents of the South Roxana area over road conditions.

The budgets, unchanged from tentative estimates, total $208,500 for the town fund, $25,230 for general assistance, $43,200 for the road and bridge fund and $8000 for the building and equipment fund.

Joseph Trociedler, supervisor, who was re-elected Tuesday, commented that the town fund budget showed a slight increase as it now provides for salaries of the township assessor and his employees, but that the relief budget was reduced by $12,000 due to a large balance.

He said the federal government had instituted an assisting program, and those on the township relief rolls who were found eligible were referred to the federal program administrator in Edwardsville and were dropped from the township rolls.

Adopted Leases The road and bridge and equipment fund remains about the same, with the same leases adopted. The tax levy for the town fund is $19,950, and for the relief fund, $12,000.

A South Roxana woman asked where the road and bridge money was used, indicating that none was spent in her part of the township.

She was referred to the town road commissioner and told that he holds a meeting to answer questions on the first Tuesday in September.

Per Diem Compensation The electors also approved a per diem of $15 for auditors up to an annual total of $300 and compensation of town officers at $1000 for the supervisor, $1800 for the clerk, $3000 for the highway commissioner, and $1000 for the supervisor of general assistance. They are the same as last year.

George Warnecke of Mitchell, re-elected as auditor, served as moderator for about the 12th consecutive year and provided the only "nay" vote of the meeting.

It came on a resolution by auditor Marjorie Sparks to set a 5 p.m. deadline for the filing of petitions of candidacy and the last day of filing.

The motion was made to prevent a future legal dispute of the type which resulted after Duane DeCota of South Roxana filed petitions during the night of the final day and which were not honored. It required litigation in circuit court to have DeCota's name listed on the ballot as a candidate for supervisor.

Legality Questioned Warnecke stated that the law did not require it and objected to any moves to hamper the town clerk in the conduct of his duties. Donald Buckley, township attorney from Edwardsville, who was attempted to prosecute legal opinions, said that it would do no harm to pass the resolution. The electors did so, including the four women from the northern part of the township.

A motion to transfer a $536 balance from a special road and bridge fund was approved. Trociedler noted it was created four years ago, the culvert was installed with county financial assistance and that the money was dormant and would never be needed for its special purpose.

MORE ABOUT

'No Limit'

for the entire project on its own

Unfounded Reassurance

While the senator voiced a belief that the proposal should be submitted to a district-wide election, the legislative act he introduced carried no such requirement.

The unlimited bonds would have been issued, had the bill been approved, to finance the levee district's share, or possibly all, of a district-wide section of a vast hillside drainage project starting near Litchfield in Montgomery county.

The project would have included the "Baby Panama Canal" section of Project 12, which was halted by injunction back in 1922 when it was determined the district was exceeding its bonding power.

Power Politics

Attempts to obtain passage of this bill were typical of levee district power politics. The proposal was based on a survey by U. S. Army Engineers indicating the need of a drainage project that would correct the source of internal flash flooding rather than temporary measures within the confines of the district.

Just after the bill was submitted, Mayor Alvin G. Fields of East St. Louis made a statement to the effect that such a project was a necessity because anything that was done within "the shell" of the proposed watershed district in which the hillside drainage project would be built would be temporary.

"It (hillside drainage) is our only salvation," said the mayor. "Any other flood control projects would be like stuffing money down a rat hole . . . you never finish."

This was particularly surprising in view of the fact that Mayor Fields was, and still is, head of the Democratic party in East St. Louis and St. Clair county which maintains control of the levee district. That same levee district has spent millions of dollars on temporary measures inside the district.

While this project eventually fell by the wayside due to the re-organizing status of the hillside drainage project, which still hangs in a cloud of uncertainty, it had for unlimited bonding power.

Large Crowd's Effort to Cut Nameoki Twp. Budget Goes in Reverse

A crowd of more than 150 Nameoki township residents descended on the Nameoki town hall Tuesday night in an effort to slash salary figures in the township's new budget and tax levy, but did little more than squabble over petty details that ran the meeting into a four-hour session, and a budget of $2000 increase in the budget to $2000.

No salary figures, or any other, were reduced or eliminated.

Occasion of the hectic session was the annual town meeting, called by town officials for public approval of a new tax levy and budget which had been on public display since March 8, and on which a public hearing was held March 30.

No one appeared at the public hearing, however, although budgeted items could have been altered by them at that time.

Shortly before 7 p.m. Tuesday, large numbers of township residents began arriving at the one-room township office, overflowing into the parking lot. As Mayor Harry Briggs called the meeting to order, a member of the audience asked that the meeting be adjourned to the town garage, adjoining the office. Briggs protested that about 20 automobiles were parked in front of the garage doors and that equipment would have to be moved out to make room for the meeting.

The audience, however, put the matter in front of a police officer. Briggs acquiesced and the crowd dispersed to move cars. A heavy road grader was run out of the garage into the parking lot and parked, with its motor running.

Want Motor Shut Off

As Briggs again called the meeting into session, first issue of discussion among the protest crowd was for the motor of the grader to be shut off to reduce the noise. Briggs replied that the highway commissioner preferred to keep it running, because it was possible it might not start again. The crowd shouted in unison that the motor be shut off, promising to push the grader to start it again, if necessary. The motor was shut off. The action drew a loud round of applause.

There is another instance that illustrates the district's eagerness for opportunities to seize upon additional financial power.

The protesting group demonstrated its numerical superiority over the gathering supporting the town officials by electing its own moderator in the first matter of business. Philip This, an attorney residing in Nameoki township, acted as principal spokesman for the protest delegation, although a large number of the group spoke at one time or another, and frequently at the same time.

The crowd, still confined in a single group at that time, nominated two candidates for moderator—Dan McGrew, who was the choice of town officials, and Carl Macios, the candidate of the protest crowd. Due to a clamor for exact tabulation of the ensuing vote, town officials and supporters of McGrew lined up the protesters of McGrew at the end of the garage and the supporters of Macios in the other, and count heads. This was done, with Macios the winner by a vote of 69 to 56. The crowd remained divided at opposite ends of the garage for later voting purposes.

Approve 1964 Minutes

Minutes of the last annual meeting were read by Town Clerk Karlechik. After approval, Macios, reading from a prepared paper, called for reports of fund reports for the past year. At this point, This asked if the garage door at the front of the building could be put down to reduce noise from outside. A five-minute argument ensued, with one side contending it would stifle out the air, and the other side maintaining it couldn't hear the moderator with the door open. The protest group finally put it to a motion, but Briggs intervened to prevent someone to put the door down.

As this was done, a demand was made from the group on the administration end of the garage that if the front door was to be put down, "then put down the back door, too." The rear door also was closed.

Karlechik then read routine reports of fund receipts and disbursements during the past year. These were accepted without opposition, but not without some misunderstanding by a man who wanted comparison figures, apparently believing the reports to be a presentation of budget items.

As Karlechik prepared to read the budget and appropriation bill, a man in the protest group interrupted, "we might just as well go home anyway. Since we elected the moderator, other people have been coming in here in droves and joining the others (the administration crowd). How are we going to determine the vote? Are we going to vote only on the original vote for moderator or do these new people get to vote too?"

Nick Vassileff, town attorney, replied that "this is an open meeting. People may come and go as they please."

At this point a woman in the protest crowd arose and told the members of her own delegation, "I have something I want to say. A lot of you people may have been around here longer than I, and a lot of you may be older than I, but I can't see what we are going to accomplish if all act like a bunch of kids."

Another member of the group responded, however, that "Harry (Briggs) talked to somebody after the vote (for moderator) and four fellows took out of here like a covey of quail. They've had more people coming in ever since."

After lengthy argument over reading the budget and appropriation by totals, or item by item, This said the major item of interest by the protest group was the salary figures and suggested they might be separated. Vassileff replied the only means of doing that would be reading the budget item by item.

Matthew Ropac, one of the defeated candidates for town auditor in Tuesday's election, suggested a recess until a later date. Vassileff pointed out the approach bill had been on file 30 days and a public hearing held, and that people had ample time to go over the figures. He suggested the meeting continue and said there was no provision for postponing an annual town meeting. This disputed this point and said the moderator could postpone the meeting.

As town fund items were read, Joseph J. Coban, town assessor, told the group that the sum of $2500 for hiring deputy assessors was insufficient. After an hour 15-minute argument, the group moved that an additional $2000 be added to the budget for hiring deputy assessors. Town officials did not oppose the raise.

The question of who was eligible to vote on the budget figures then arose and Vassileff explained only registered voters were permitted to vote. He said decisions in voting were up to Macios as moderator.

The budget for the town fund, totaling $43,500, including the $2000 increase, first was presented on the basis of total figures only, but since the protest group wanted to act individually on salary figures, a vote by a show of hands defeated acceptance of the town fund as a whole 72 to 75.

First item was a $1400 salary for Briggs as supervisor, but what appeared to be a mounting protest to this item subsided when the crowd learned the salary was unchanged from last year.

A salary of $2500 for Karlechik contained in the new appropriation came in for lengthy discussion since it was increased from $1250 last year. Herbert Polley, town auditor, explained the workload of the clerk had more than doubled, that Karlechik worked on Saturdays and sometimes on Sundays and that the work was worth far more than what had been paid. The salary was approved by a vote of 84 to 65.

This spearheaded a move to obtain a $2000 salary raise for Coban when the item for the assessor's salary was read. Coban receives $4600 per year and that amount was budgeted.

Briggs explained that the assessor salary was fixed by statute on the basis of population, and that Coban has been paid on the basis of a population not exceeding 8000 which permits a salary up to $4000.

Check Statutes

This contended the population had increased. He asked Briggs for a population figure. Briggs replied it might be around 13,000 or 14,000, but that was only his opinion and could not be used as legal basis for a salary increase. Vassileff told This that the salary could be based only on the population figure of the last U. S. census. This insisted on looking the matter up and Vassileff and This did some research with the statute books.

"Tell them what the book said," Vassileff said to This when the two attorneys returned to the meeting room. "The statute says that a salary of $4000 can be allowed up to 9000 population but that the salary can be $6000 for a population of 8000 to 18,000," This said.

"Please tell them in detail what it said," Vassileff urged. "It says the salary must be based on the last U. S. federal census," This responded.

Since no one seemed to know what the last census figure was, the matter was dropped and the $4000 salary, same as last year, was approved. This was among those voting yes on leaving the salary unchanged.

The crowd opposed a $100 item for an obnoxious weed inspector, but by this time the protest crowd, apparently convinced its efforts were unsuccessful, was dwindling away. The figure was approved, as were the remaining items of the general assistance fund which were read individually.

By 10 a.m. the protest group, which had voted with a strength of 75 persons, had dwindled to about 20 persons.

The annual tax levy for the 1965-66 fiscal year was approved without opposition. The new levy of $127.134 included $42,850 for the town fund, $32,044 for the general assistance fund, and $2906 for the municipal retirement fund.

Speedway Entrants From Out-of-State

Several out-of-state drivers will participate in the opening night races Saturday at Tri-City Speedway, manager Garlan Farless said today.

Included will be standout stock driver Gordon Wootley of Waco, Tex. Farless said his speedway is one of the first to open its season and that out-of-state interest was generated by an advertisement in a national stock-car magazine.

Time trials are set for 7:30 p.m. with the races beginning at 8:30 p.m. Saturday.

'Good Old Days' Recalled

Matmen, Cagers Get Awards at GC Fete

Rich Bledsoe, defeated only once in 32 bouts for Granite City high school's state champions, was named outstanding wrestler of the year Tuesday night at the annual winter sports award banquet.

Bledsoe, 120-pounder described by coach Bill "Red" Schmitt as "our most exciting wrestler," was also named honorary co-captain. The other captain was Steve Cavanaugh, who had a 32-2-1 record and was state runner-up at 115 pounds. Both are seniors.

In basketball, Capt. Vince Debeve was named Hustling Warrior for 1965 and Joe Grobowski received the Rebounding Warrior award. Coach Andy Sullivan noted that Debeve broke two school records of ex-star Larry Lilley with 104 recoveries for the season and 10 steals in one game. Grobowski developed into an excellent player, he said, even though he was cut from the squad a year earlier.

Other special awards went to 95-pound wrestler Bill Fuchs for having the most pins (18) and to junior cager Larry Ripka for having the best free throw percentage (75 1/2%).

Letters Awarded

Schmitt awarded letters to 14 wrestlers and student manager Tom Craycraft. The wrestlers were seniors Bledsoe, Cavanaugh, John Evenen, Gary Forshoe, Rich Grizzard, Tom Miosky, Mike Mounce, Tom Shands and Bourbon Stark; juniors Mike Andria, Lester Robertson, Jim Valicoff and Mike Reynolds; and sophomore Terry Moore.

Schmitt called his state champs "the most togetherness team we've ever had" and Sullivan praised his squad for "playing their best ball against the best."

Old Days Good?

Milton Sprunger, former coach and principal of Illinois High School Association official told the audience the "good old days" weren't really so good, especially in athletics. Some of his comments:

Eligibility — "Each school made its own rules. There was no age limit, although most of the athletes were in school — at least a little bit. It wasn't unusual for boys of 22 and 23 years old to sign up for a spelling course and play on the football team."

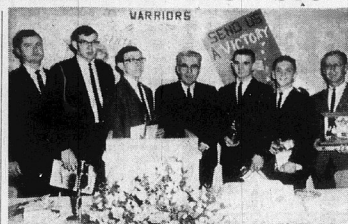

Crowd conduct — "A riot of booing and bad manners — the opposition was the enemy and was treated as such." Coaching — "He didn't have to be on the faculty, but he had to be a good athlete — because he had to play when the going got rough."

Officials — "Usually hometown boys, who knew nothing about the rules." Equipment — "Privately owned and the kids had to buy suits from last year's team. Only a sissy wore shoulder pads or head protectors."

Played in Pastures — "Cow pastures became football fields, with one provision — that the farmer got the cows out of the pasture at least a month before the season started."

Said Sprunger: "The good old days are a lot of fun to talk about, but not to go back to." He also stated some of his beliefs on school athletics, stressing that desirable traits are not inherent in athletics. "They need proper supervision and control, and a purpose — so that winning yards is more important than losing eyes."

Sprunger said that high school athletics are valuable but must be kept in their proper place — as an adjunct and accessory to the main task of giving youngsters a good, well-rounded and productive education.

Pat Rich, master of ceremonies, announced Miss Lynn Sheppard as the 1965 "Miss School Spirit."

Five DeMolays Named For Chevalier Award

Five local members of the Order of DeMolay were selected for the Chevalier award at the 32nd annual session of its international supreme council at Louisville, Ky., to bring the local court to 68 members. William Noud represented the Granite City chapter at the meet.

New members are Larry Lipe, past master councilor; Terry Rochester, past master councilor; William Henley, master councilor; James Rucker, senior councilor; and David Cook, junior councilor.

Highland Trackmen Top Dupo, Madison; Jim Lane of Trojans is Double Winner

Highland's Bulldogs scored 65 points to defeat the Dupo Trojans (36) and the Madison Trojans (25) in a triangular high school track meet yesterday.

The Bulldogs took six firsts. The two trailing schools, however, had the only double winners.

Madison senior Jim Lane streaked to victories in the 100-yard dash with a time of 10.5 seconds and won the 220 in 23 seconds flat. Cliff Goodfellow of Dupo won both hurdles events.

Coach Glen Pickering said the meet was the first real taste of competition for the Trojans, who have limited practices due to bad weather.

In addition to Lane, he looks for future scoring help from the 880 relay team, broad jumper John Washenko, distance runner Tim Varady and hurdler Steve Partkale who showed promise H. 3. Rigler H. 4. Hunsaker D. 12.2.

Levee Board

serve Madison, Venice, Brooklyn, all of Canteen Township, Caseyville, Fairmont City and Washington Park, and agreements with these communities are to be revised. Wisely said the $1.13 rate would be reduced further if Collinsville follows through on a city council-approved plan to join the levee system.

Size of the land needed and the plant will be reduced with two of six phases eliminated. Also not included in the new plans are the separator sewer in Madison and Venice and the interceptor sewer in Fairmont City.

In three other phases, contracts have already been let leading to the hope that construction can begin in May. Wisely said the plant itself must be redesigned in part and re-advertising of bids depends on the changes recommended by the Federal Public Health Service.

Bond Issue Reduced
The new ordinance also calls for reduction of the sewer revenue bonds from $2,000,000 to $1,600,000, cutting the total cost of the project from nearly $3 million to $2,080,000. The district anticipates a federal grant of $486,000.

"This thing is closer to being resolved than it ever has been," Wisely said. "It looks like it's going to move." The abatement program has been under study in the levee district for more than seven years. A plan to serve the southern part of the district has recently been completed at Cahokia.

In other action, the board approved monthly payments of $43,096 to Keeley Bros. Construction Co. and $1900 to Hoerner & Shiffrin engineers for work on the Cahokia sewage plant, and partial payment of $10,887 to Union Electric for work done on Project 15.

Accepted a recommendation by the finance and engineering committees not to let automation maintenance bids and experiment with a "pay-as-you-go" policy to determine which is cheaper.

Referred to the engineering committee a request by a development firm to beautify a station area in Rosemont adjacent to a six-family apartment built by the firm.

The Young Adult Circle met at the First Methodist Church Monday, with lunch being served to Mrs. Margaret Garrison, Mrs. Catherine O'Neil, Mrs. Kathryn Jones, Mrs. Eva Clements, Mrs. Mary Beasley, Mrs. Erma Graves, Mrs. Sue Kasek and Mrs. Ruth Vaughn.

During a short business meeting, plans were made for a meal supper May 22 at the church with the proceeds to go towards a church decorating project.

The topic discussed by each member was entitled "What Lord Means To Us." The meeting will be held May 2 at the church.

WE RESERVE THE RIGHT TO LIMIT

Authorization to hire two full-time police patrolmen by May 1 to work during the 6½-month vacation period. And to replace two officers who may retire late this year was granted Monday night by Granite City council members.

In other action, the council turned down a request for installation of septic tanks along Mercer drive where there is no sewer line and referred to the Plan Commission a request for location of a trail behind a Baptist Church in the 2000 block of Johnson road.

With the two additional policemen, the city force will be increased to 41 men. However, negotiations will reduce the number on duty.

A one-year contract with Rely-Tar & Chemical Corp. to provide fire protection to the industrial plant outside the city limits was approved Monday by the Granite City council members.

The annual fee was doubled and will be $200, and the city promises to pay the balance should a fireman be injured or any equipment damaged. The balance is being fought there.

Alderman Johnson, chairman of the committee, said the contract is similar to the one recently signed with the Bi-State Agency for the wharf facilities on the Chain of Rocks canal.

The city accepted a 15-foot wide easement for a drainage subdivision for installation of a drainage line.

Approval was received from the Illinois Commerce Commission of a continuation of a contract, bearing on consolidation of two S&N steamship companies, two S&N, St. Louis-Chicago northbound trains of the Gulf, and the Gulf.

The city also was notified it had 30 days to file an answer in the circuit court to a summons issued for East St. Louis & Inland Water Co. seeking an injunction to halt collection of taxes based on 1962 assessed valuation of the firm's personal property. Named in the suit

The water company contends its personal property in Granite City was assessed at $1,614,020 and that since assessments are set at 60% of the total value, its 1962 valuation should have been set at $1,514,024 since the total value was not in excess of $2,523,373.

In Venice township, the 1962 assessment was $645,000 and should have been $301,586 based on the 60% valuation.

The valuation of personal property in Nameoki township should have been set at $137,456 for 1962, the company contends. The assessor set the figure at $220,400, and the water company sets forth in the suit the total value was not in excess of $299,000.

Many a man shivers in the cold just because he imagined he had the fire of genius.

Cash Register Rifled Of $20 at Tarlax Meat

The Tarlax Meat Co., 1138 Greenwood Avenue, Madison, was burglarized between 11:30 p.m. Monday and 3:45 a.m. Tuesday by thieves who broke open the cash register and took between $20 and $25 worth of silver.

Entrance was gained by breaking a window. The burglars left by a rear cooler door. The plate was not tampered and nothing but the cash register was disturbed, police said.

35 Town Electors Hike GC Assessor Pay to $9000

A township tax assessor's salary of $9000, an increase of $1800 over last year, was approved Tuesday by the annual Granite City town meeting in city hall. About 35 persons attended.

To become effective, the salary increase must be approved by the city council which acts as the town board auditors. Kenneth Harbarger, who made the motion, said the increase would attract more qualified candidates for the position in the future and provide the way for the city council to increase salaries of other high officials in local government.

The proposed budget of $220,208 included a provision for $7680 in salary for the assessor in 1965-66. The council had earlier approved a $480 increase from the present $7200 annual salary. The salary amendment boosted the figure to $221,628 or $3248 more than last year. The budget was approved as amended.

Relief Total—$168,973

The figure for the general assistance fund is $168,973, down $4676 from last year. The town fund budget also includes a $600 increase to $4300 for the supervisor of public assistance. This increase has been approved by the council.

In other action, the township electors approved retention of William Schooley as attorney at $100 per month and authorized a fee of $10 per meeting for the town clerk.

The annual financial report listed town fund receipts of $65,690 and disbursements of $49,448 for the fiscal year ending Feb. 31. Cash balance on hand as of March 1 was $16,242. ## Press-Record YOUTH FOCUS

Named to Honor Roll

Miss Cynthia Zahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald D. Zahn, 1741 Third street, Madison, has been named to the honor roll at MacMurray College, Jacksonville, for the first semester which ended in January. To qualify, a student must carry at least 14 hours and receive an A-minus average or above.

A new system of copper electroplating has been developed by Southern Illinois University chemistry professor Elbert H. Hadley.

MRS. BARBARA WILLIS DOWELL of Granite City at work in the health center at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, Mo., where she has a working scholarship. She completed nursing school at Deaconess hospital and is a registered nurse.

Mrs. Dowell, RN, Has Hands Full at Lindenwood

Mrs. Barbara Willis Dowell of Granite City, in her final year of a five-year nursing program at Lindenwood College, St. Charles, is working in the college's health center as a registered nurse, having completed the three-year program leading to the RN at Deaconess Hospital, St. Louis. She will receive her bachelor of science degree at May commencement exercises.

Mrs. Dowell, who is married to Kenneth Dowell of Braden Avenue, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Willis, Aux-Vasse, Mo.

The nursing program, offered by the college in cooperation with Deaconess Hospital, is designed for two types of students—those who, like Mrs. Dowell, spend the first three years completing their RN at the Deaconess school of nursing and then come to Lindenwood for two years, and those who attend Lindenwood their freshman year, spend the next three at Deaconess, and return to the college for their senior year.

Mrs. Dowell and three St. Charles students are four nurses who live and work in the health center this year under a working scholarship from the college covering their tuition, room and board.

Work Nights

In exchange, the four nurses are each required to be on duty for one week of each month from 5 p.m. to 8 a.m. week nights and all day Saturdays and Sundays. They also keep records on the students who use the health center services, take 12 to 16 hours of academic work and rotate in making daily examinations of the children in the college's nursery school.

"Two years of college nursing, which give us practical experience in making emergency decisions and in coordinating the past, present and social histories of the patients, is very helpful to us when we are seeking jobs," they reported.

During their three years of training at Deaconess, the students did bedside nursing service and attended classes in medical nursing, surgical nursing, obstetrics, pediatrics, psychiatry and surgery.

Malmberg Piling Up Honors at U. of I. Now Cited by Dean

Lawrence McCauley, principal of Granite City high school, has been notified that Virgil Lee Malmberg, 2519 Grand Avenue, a freshman engineering student at the University of Illinois, has qualified for membership in Phi Eta Sigma, national scholarship society for freshman men.

He qualified by attaining an academic record of half A and half B or more and has earned a ranking among the top three per cent of the freshman men in his class.

Carl W. Knox, dean of men and advisor to Phi Eta Sigma, wrote: "Since you and your teaching staff contributed to this accomplishment, we wish to share our gratitude with you. Your help and assistance in making it possible for this student to make such a successful start to his university career is recognized and appreciated."

"May the accomplishments of this graduate of your high school serve as a helpful example for other students thinking of college and university careers. We share our pride in the record of this graduate and compliment you for your role in his success."

New Military College Programs Announced

Opportunity for students at the University of Illinois to earn commissions in Army, Navy or Air Force through ROTC in either four or two-year programs was announced today.

Four-year programs have been in effect for many years. The two-year opportunity was added on approval of changes in requirements for admissions to junior and senior courses in military science, naval science and Air Force aerospace studies.

Students may qualify for advanced courses either through freshman and sophomore courses or by attending special six-week summer training at Fort Knox, Ky., for the Army, Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala., and Keesler Air Force Base, Miss., for the Air Force, and Purdue University, University of North Carolina and University of California at Los Angeles for the Navy.

New scholarship plans for the Army and Air Force programs, similar to the long-standing Navy plan, are available. They will pay $600 a year, tuition, fees, books, supplies and uniforms. Applications for new Army and Air Force scholarships are due by May 1. Naval scholarship holders for 1965 have already been selected.

SPOOK HOUSE of unusual monsters was a highlight of Neuman Day during the teachers' institute holiday program at the YMCA which attracted about 150 youths. It was staged by Zeia Chi, a junior Tri-Hi-Y club. Other activities during the day included a wild auction, mad artists and chorades.

Math Placement Exams To Be Held on May 8

The Missouri section of the Mathematical Association of America will give an advanced placement examination for high school students from 9 a.m. to noon May 8.

Last year 500 of the 1000 students who took the exam were able to begin their college mathematics with analytic geometry and calculus. Awards will be given for the best papers, including $100, $75, $50 and $25 in each of large, medium and small school classes.

Interested students should have their high school math teacher write to Dr. John J. Andrews, mathematics department, St. Louis University, for more information. A fee of $1 will be charged, and registration must be completed by May 1.

Named on Dean's List

Robert Lawrence Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Collins, 809 Franklin street, West Madison, has been named to the dean's list at the University of Missouri at Kansas City for last semester. The honor roll cites the upper 10% of students in each year's class. A Madison high school graduate, he is a junior in the college of arts and sciences.

Zing into spring! Corvair by Chevrolet

New Corvair Corsa Convertible and Sport Coupe top Corvair's T-model lineup for '65—all with Body by Fisher.

The steering's crisper, the ride's flatter, the style's racier—even the grass looks a shade greener from behind the wheel of this new Corvair

You'll find Corvair Corsa's instrument panel vastly more informative than an ordinary car's. But that's really only a fringe benefit of driving one.

Because for all its finely calibrated instrumentation—tachometer, manifold pressure gauge, even an electric clock with a sweep second hand for rally buffs—the most important thing that happens when you get a Corsa out on the road doesn't register on the dash. It registers on you.

You feel it in the steering—crisp and precise—as you double back on a curve. In the flat riveted-to-the-road stability of the new fully independent suspension. In the response of the rear engine (up to 180 hp available now in Corsa's Turbo-Charged version).

You don't have to wear a sports car cap and sun goggles to appreciate things like this. Or the clean international cut of Corvair's styling.

Drop down to your dealer's now—while the trading's extra good—and see for yourself. Look over the dashboard gadgetry all you like, but by all means get out on the road where you can really handle the merchandise. We'll guarantee spring will look greener, sun goggles or no.

Buried cable:
$10,000,000 in new life insurance for your telephone this year

Put telephone wires underground and you've put them in a safe place. Safe from wind, rain, hot weather, cold weather, stormy weather. All around safer from the kinds of trouble which can affect your phone service.

That's why this year Southwestern Bell is spending $10 million burying hundreds of additional miles of telephone cable underground. In effect, buying life insurance for your telephone service.

There's another benefit. New jobs will be created. Some in the telephone business and an estimated 500 new jobs among the hundreds of firms which sell supplies, services and materials to the telephone company.

This is a 1965 communications bonus. Part of a massive construction effort to make the world's best telephone service even better.

GC Senior Class To Present Murder Mystery on Friday

The senior class at Granite City high school will present a murder mystery, "The Spiral Staircase," at 8 p.m. Friday in the school auditorium.

In the cast are Karen Bauer as Mrs. Oates, Rick Blumstock as Constable, Eugene Bryant as Professor, Warren, James Townsend as Helen, Ramon Talley as Dr. Parry, Cathy Coe as Nurse Baker, Linda King as Mrs. Warren, Ray Voothers as Stephen Rice and Sharon Laebert as the telephone operator.

The play opens with thunder and rain echoing outside. The sheriff arrives at the isolated Warren household to report another in a series of apparently unprovoked murders which have shocked and terrified the village. Without exception the victims have been young girls, all with a noticeable defect or imperfection. Because of this there is a fear for the safety of Helen, companion to the bedridden Mrs. Warren, who had been unable to speak since undergoing the shock of witnessing her parents' horrible death several years earlier.

Helen is persuaded to travel to Boston with Dr. Parry for an examination. But her protectors leave one by one, and as her isolation grows, so does the threat of the killer's visit.

Admission tickets at 75 cents may be purchased at the door.

$94,208 Tax Levy Okayed in Venice Township Meeting

A new tax levy of $94,208 for the 1965-66 fiscal year beginning March 31 was approved by a group of 15 persons—all of them public officials or employees—at the annual Venice township meeting Tuesday afternoon. The meeting convened at 2 p.m. in the basement of the Venice city hall.

The delegation of electors also submitted and approved a series of seven resolutions fixing salaries for various town officers. Salary raises totaling $1800 per year were included in three of the resolutions, and two of these provided increases of $600 per year each in the salary of the supervisor. The other $600 represented an increase in the salary of the town clerk.

The tax levy includes an extension of $15,125 to be raised by taxes for the town fund; $71,565 to be levied for general assistance fund; $7310 for the Municipal Retirement fund. A separate resolution extending $16,940 levy for the road and bridge fund also was approved.

Amounts to be raised by taxes will apply against appropriations of $50,945 for the town fund, $110,000 for the general assistance fund, $7310 for the Municipal Retirement fund and $24,200 in the road and bridge fund. The difference between the amount of the tax levy and the appropriation is made up of fund balances, tax distribution from previous levies and other sources of income. The budget and appropriation also were approved during the meeting.

$192,255 Budget.
The budget totals $192,255 for the current year, a reduction of $9965 below last year's $202,250. Stanley Krakowski, an Illinois license inspector, was elected moderator of the meeting.

Resolutions, which were presented separately by persons attending the meeting, provided for a salary of $15 per day for members of the town board of auditors for days on which they serve, unchanged from the previous year; a salary of $3490 for the town clerk, up $600 from last year's $1800; a salary of $5100 per year for the supervisor of general assistance, up $600 from last year's $4500.

A salary of $3000 per year for the township highway commissioner, same as last year; a salary of $2400 per year for the town attorney, same as last year; a salary of $1200 per year for the supervisor of the town fund, up $800 from last year, and a salary of $4000 per year for the town collector, same as last year.

Annual town meetings are open to the public and under the law must be conducted by the public who must vote upon approval of the budgets and resolutions under which the township operates during each fiscal year.

Peace Corps Tests To Be Held Saturday

An opportunity for area residents to test their aptitudes for Peace Corps service will come at 9 a.m. Saturday at the East St. Louis post office building, Room 414, 750 Missouri avenue.

The opportunity is the Peace Corps placement test. It is not passed or failed, but indicates where an individual's greatest potential lies. The Peace Corps questionnaire, which must be filled out and submitted at the exam unless previously submitted, tells what an applicant has done in the past. But the placement test is aimed at showing what he or she can do in the future. Applicants do not have to register for the test ahead of time.

The questionnaires can be obtained at all post offices. On college campuses they are available at college placement centers or the offices of Peace Corps liaison officers who are members of the faculty or college administration.

There are two parts to the test: a general aptitude test and a modern language aptitude test for which knowledge of a foreign language is not necessary. Applicants should plan on about 1½ hours at the testing center unless they wish to take the Spanish or French language examinations.

125 GCHS Seniors Take Scholarship Applications

The Granite City Scholarship Foundation distributed applications to 125 seniors at Granite City high school Tuesday morning.

The foundation has been awarding a number of $400 scholarships, but the number this year has yet to be determined, depending upon available funds.

The applications and other materials are to be completed and returned by April 21, and a comprehensive financial report is to be prepared by parents or guardian and submitted to Dennis Ketchie, a member of the foundation's finance committee, at the Tri-City Grocery Co. warehouse serving by the same date.

To qualify for a scholarship, students must have financial need and show scholastic promise to fulfill a program of college work.

Applicants must write a theme of not more than 350 words explaining what led to their desire to attend college and designating their alternate goals.

They must obtain five recommendations, including two from persons who know them well and three from teachers who know their high school work.

Foundation directors have yet to determine if current college students will be eligible to qualify for renewal scholarships.

Post Office to Give Cachets at NY Fair

Visitors to the New York World's Fair post office will find that something new has been added this year, local postmasters announced this week. The Fair opens April 21.

Souvenir cachets—compliments of the post office—will be available to patrons who visit the lobby, where the displays have been revamped and philatelic services expanded.

Sufficient cachets have been printed to provide a maximum of two five envelopes for each person anticipated to use the services of the post office, which is located in the northeast section. It can be located by consulting maps that are affixed to the many mail boxes set up in various parts of the fair grounds.

The souvenir cachets will be available only at the World's Fair post office.

Davis Vetoes Nameoki Sewer Fee Amendment

Vetted by Mayor Davis was an ordinance amendment adopted March 22 by the city council to cut the sanitary sewer rental fees for schools in the Nameoki area and to boost the fee for house trailers.

The veto message was presented to the council Monday night and since only 11 aldermen were present, no move was made to override it.

However, there was indication from Alderman Moerlen, chairman of the special committee, that such overriding action would be tried.

The amendment also set a monthly fee of $1.25 per unit for large apartments. The original Nameoki area sewer fee ordinance did not list apartments since there were none at the time of its adoption.

The amendment would have cut the school fee from the present $50 monthly charge to a monthly fee of $6 to $12, based on enrollment. The fee for trailers presently is $15 a month.

GC Defers Action On Air Pollution Control Ordinance

Passage of the city's new air pollution control ordinance was deferred Monday night at the request of Aldermen Skubish and Basarich, after it had been submitted to Granite City council members for final approval. Skubish protested saying he had been busy campaigning and did not have time to fully study the ordinance and its technicalities. He called for a review of it by St. Louis Testing Laboratories, which is conducting an air pollution study for the city, and also by the state Air Pollution Control board.

Alderman Whitmer, chairman of the Special Air Pollution committee, said the city could not call upon the testing laboratory to review the ordinance, since it was hired for another job and that the city should act quickly on the control law before the state steps in and sets up an area-wide control district month, and under the amendment was set at $2.50, the same amount charged for a single-family dwelling.

Mayor Davis told the council he vetoed the amendment on the possibility it would work a hardship on householders in the Nameoki area by cutting the monthly revenue to the city and resulting in a longer period to revise the revenue bond issue.

that would take jurisdiction away from the city.

The ordinance, he said, is stronger than the present flyash control ordinance but it would not shut down industry—giving the industries time to take corrective steps. He added, "This is a step in the right direction and we can also amend it at anytime to make adjustments."

In answers to questions from other aldermen, Whitmer said the salary of the technical secretary for the non-salaried control board would be set in time for the next city budget and that the paid employee would be hired full-time.

Skubish again appealed for more time to study the measure and was supported by Basarich. Two deferral requests stop all action.

City Oks School Crossing Guard at Nameoki School

Approval was given for hiring a school crossing guard on the school road in front of Nameoki grade school in action taken Monday night by Granite City council members.

The request was submitted by Walter Volkmar, president of the PTA, who pointed out that over 600 youngsters are dismissed at a time when industrial plant workers travel the busy route. School crossing guards are paid $6-a-day by the city.

Also approved was installation of larger no-parking signs along Pontoon road in front of the school.

A request from Granite City Steel Co. was approved to erect six-foot wire link fence along the east side of Madison avenue.

CORONATION CEREMONY AT TEMPLE BAPTIST CHURCH

A Girls' Auxiliary coronation ceremony for nine queens was held Sunday evening at the Temple Baptist Church in Madison with the theme being "The Light of the World."

Miss Carol Lewis, pianist, played the psalms, "Light of the World, We Hail Thee." Karen Dunn and Mary Ann Chamberlain lighted the candles. Prizes of flowers were used on the altar.

Mrs. Sam Paul Taylor, commentator, opened with comments on the crowning and the girls work. Mrs. Janet Gibbs gave the charges response, and crowned the queens.

As the maidens, Janet Swalliers, Brenda Volman and Vicki Melbride, entered, "Footsteps of Jesus" was softly played by the pianist. "Send the Light" was played by Judy Morgan, the lady-in-waiting. "The Morning Light is Breaking" accompanied the entry of the princesses, Janet Stout, Karen Dunn, Deana Reiner, Jackie Pillow and Pamela Hill.

Mrs. Gibbs crowned the queens, Delilah Dwyer, Connie Aldridge, Linda Volmer, Phyllis and Peggy Gibbs, Carrie and Shirley Dew, Glenda Ann and Sandra Reiner, who were escorted by George Dunst, Skip Snyder, Greg Weeks, Alan Morris, Richard Jones, Mike Hiestad, Jimmy Skinner, Tommy Chamberlain and Tom Reiser. The girls were in formal attire. Crownbearers were Sylvia Dwyer, Cathy Nordhart, Sonya McIntyre, Barbara Hlon, Teri Taylor, Jane Stevens, Donella Gibbs and Lynda Lynn Morgan.

Selected music played during the ceremony included "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," "Faith of Our Fathers," "There's Power in the Blood," "He's Calling," "One Day," "He Lives," "Rock of Ages" and "How Great Thou Art."

Special music was presented by Mary Ann Chamberlain and Laura Christian, who sang "The Light of the World is Jesus." Joannette Bryant, Barbara Smith, Jo Ann Shell and Peggy Snyder, ariettes, seated the members and guests.

Closing remarks were by Mrs. Taylor, with the benediction by Rev. Isaac Lewis. Refreshments were served following the program.

GREAT-GRANDSON FOR MRS. CORA LITTLE

Mrs. and Miss Jack Thompson of Houston, Tex., are announcing the birth of their first child, March 12. The infant weighed nine pounds, eight ounces, and has been named John Kevin Edward.

Mrs. Thompson is the former Nancy Sue Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Little of Wood River, former residents of Madison and Granite City. Mrs. Little recently returned home after visiting her daughter and family. The paternal grandparents reside in New York.

The boy arrived in the great-grandmother of Mrs. Cora Little of Madison.

More Equipment For Language Lab At Venice School

Purchase of six student recorder units at a cost of $1390 to complete the audio booths in the Venice high school's foreign language laboratory was authorized Monday night by the Venice school board.

The recorders will complete the second phase in equipping the new laboratory. Supt. of Schools John O. Pier told the board. He added that $477 of the cost has been approved for reimbursement under the National Defense Education Act.

The board members also agreed to a recommendation by Supt. Pier to renew the school district's participation in a thrust culture program in conjunction with the Madison County Heart Association.

Permission was granted for members of the New Salem Baptist Church, 208 Bremen road, to use the cafeteria facilities at Lincoln school May 28 for a fund-raising dinner. In a letter, Rev. John H. Boyd, pastor, explained that construction of a new highway in the area will result in the abandonment of the present church building.

Money derived from the dinner will be used toward building a new church in a different location.

Lockers Proposed

A need for additional full-length lockers was stressed by Supt. Pier, who said at least 50 more are required. He recommended purchase of government surplus lockers at a minimum cost and placing them on the east and west sides of the old Venice gym.

In answer to a question, he said that some lockers are now available from Lincoln high school. However, they are of the short-length design and can be best utilized in the physical education department, he explained.

Supt. Pier also reported the freshman class has offered to plant grass and place a low picket fence on the seventh street side of the Venice school building, purchasing the necessary items with funds collected by the students.

Election Discussed

A delegation of Congress of Racial Equality members said they understood ballot boxes are to be placed in the Eagle Park area for Saturday school board election. The practice was discontinued last year, when polls were reduced from three to one.

Board President Michael E. Leatherman Jr. explained that a single polling place in the Venice grade school building on Broadway has been designated for the school election. Resulting exchanges between the Core representatives and board members cleared up the misconception.

The group had read a published listing of a voting place for Tuesday's Venice township election at 201 Harrison street, Eagle Park.

Improper school voting practices were charged by Mrs. Lennie Wooten, who said non-district residents have been allowed to vote. She added that some residents have been denied the right to vote at the Venice school.

Denies Charges

Board Member Roy L. Musick denied both allegations, saying he had been present all day in the poll during last year's school election.

LINED UP TO VOTE at the IOOF Hall on Nameoki road in Tuesday's city-township election in Granite City. The polling place served a dual role as city precinct 20 and township precinct 22.

A weekend camping trip at Camp Lakota near Glen Carbon was enjoyed by Junior Girl Scout Troop 704, sponsored by Webster PTA. The girls stayed in the lodge, but cooked all meals outdoors using home-made "vagina-bond stoves."

Hiking trips were enjoyed and entertainment was provided by each patrol. New games were taught and a campfire songfest and "Scouts Own" were held. The girls exchanged troop crests and a string of birthstones around the camp area.

Scouts participating were Ruth Bird, Kathy Bucher, Susan Englingame, Kitty Chapline, Pam ment next fall, the board already has completed plans to convert a science laboratory in Venice high school into two classrooms, with the laboratory being moved into a visual education room.

The board called a special meeting for 7:30 p.m. next Monday to discuss Saturday's school election and to elect board officers.

Gym Floor Refinishing

Refinishing the gymnasium floor was discussed by Musick, building committee chairman, who said current plans call for the floor to be resanded during the summer.

Following a recent inspection of the Venice school district program, one adjustment was recommended by the staff of State Supt. Ray Page, who said in a report that smaller services could be served to lower grades to avoid excessive waste.

He granted a "Type A" classification to the district lunch program, which was listed as having adequate facilities and proper storage conditions.

Also discussed briefly was the feasibility of converting the new school garage building into office space and remodeling the present office area to create classrooms. The renovations are considered possible, Supt. Pier said, due to the school district no longer requiring the garage to house school buses. No definite decision was taken.

Anticipating increased enrollment next fall, the board already has completed plans to convert a science laboratory in Venice high school into two classrooms, with the laboratory being moved into a visual education room.

School Board Member Guidelines

- 1. IMPARTIALITY—A school board needs truly balanced representation, with each member striving to represent the school district as a whole, rather than any particular segment, and deciding issues on the basis of what is best for the youth and adults of the community, not what is best politically or for a special-interest group.
- 2. CHARACTER—Record of participation in wholesome community endeavors; deserving of full public confidence in his integrity; willingness to approach the responsibility with an open mind, always seeking the truth and making decisions without bias; awareness that as a public official he would have the duty to set high standards of conduct.
- 3. EXPERIENCE—Sound educational background; experience of substantial duration and reasonable success in his trade, profession or business, resulting in acquisition of mature knowledge and judgment; ability to contribute to informed discussions and wise actions on finance, construction, administrative, personnel, and other matters; and professional and academic interests.
- 4. SCHOOL BUSINESS—Continue interest in an effective public school system, including avoidance of operating debt; retention of open, competitive bidding to assure good-quality, low-cost equipment and supplies; adherence to applicable laws and to efficient, businesslike procedure in all matters.

- 5. SCHOOL PERSONNEL—Encouragement of a good school system through fostering cooperation, teamwork, study, innovation, loyalty and pride in accomplishment in wholesome community endeavors; desiring of full public confidence in his integrity; willingness to approach the responsibility with an open mind, always seeking the truth and making decisions without bias; awareness that as a public official he would have the duty to set high standards of conduct.
- 6. PERFORMANCE—Willingness to learn and to keep informed of educational trends, problems and trends; to attend board meetings regularly and punctually; to be courteous and to discuss school policies with the public; readiness to support sound proposals for progress and improvement; and ability to withstand unfair but intense criticism without sacrifice of principle.
- 7. RESTRAINT—Recognition that as a school board member he has responsibility to see that the public schools are well run, but not to run them; that he should not use his position for advancement but of the advancement of each school child.

Dr. SIMS says... SAFEGUARD YOUR HEALTH

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE ILLINOIS STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY

RECOMMENDATIONS ON FEEDING YOUR BABY

Modern infant formulas are as safe and nutritious as science can possibly make them. But occasionally, accidental poisoning may occur if mothers do not follow instructions to the letter.

Here are some guides to help you make certain your baby is receiving the proper formula.

1. Make sure you understand measurements, proportions and procedures of formula preparation. All mothers don't know what a quart or pint is, and don't understand the difference between 0.6 cubic-centimeters and six cubic-centimeters when it comes to feeding your baby. The difference can create serious trouble if medicines and vitamins are involved.
2. Keep formula ingredients in separate containers which are clearly labeled, and taste the formula before giving it to your baby. The serious danger of acci-dently substituting an ingredient such as salt for sugar can escape your eyes, but not your taste buds.

3. Don't increase the amount of vitamins. If added indiscriminately an excessive amount of certain vitamins could cause poisoning.
4. Most modern babies receive their vitamins in their formula as a matter of precaution. But if you feel your child's diet is vitamin deficient, seek the advice of your doctor. Don't act on your own judgment.
5. Up-To-Date Instructions. Best early instructions for your doctor may have revised as the infant grows and develops.
6. Diet tamper with the formula in an effort to make it "taste better."
7. Don't fatten-up your baby. There are real hazards in the natural tendency to overfeed or force-feed which could cause most problems in later years. Remember, a chubby baby is not necessarily a healthy one.

SIDELIGHTS from SPRINGFIELD

By Sen. PAUL SIMON

VOTE NEAR ON ENDING CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

Most people have no opinion on some issues of tremendous importance which face the Legislature. But one issue on which a final vote will soon be taken in the Senate almost everyone has a strong opinion on whether the death penalty should be abolished.

Two proposals are before the legislature. One is to reduce the death penalty for a trial period of six years, the other to remove it permanently except for the crimes of treason and the killing of a policeman or garrison guard.

Switch of Sentiment

One of the interesting features is that there is a tendency for some legislators who have served a term or two and have had a chance to study the issue in depth to switch from being for capital punishment to being against it.

This is true of one of the main sponsors this time, Rep. Robert Canfield, Republican of Rockford. He is a former state attorney of Winnebago county and when he first came to the legislature he voted to retain capital punishment. Now he is the chief sponsor of one of the bills to get rid of it.

Why does someone like Rep. Canfield change his mind? There are several reasons.

1. The main purpose of capital punishment is to protect society from killers. Evidence indicates that rarely if ever is capital punishment a deterrent to murder. States like Michigan that do not have capital punishment have a lower murder rate than does Illinois, and have a better record for putting killers in jail prisons.

Endless Trials

As long as the electric chair hangs over a man there will be endless trials with both juries and judges reluctant to find a man guilty if there is any doubt on the matter.

Views of Experts

4. Testimony of experts in the field is overwhelmingly for abolishing capital punishment. They believe society is better served by sure, swift and fair sentences than by the occasional execution.

If the vote is "able to get rid of the death penalty, the reasons given above will be responsible. Much credit will also have to go to Sen. Robert McCarthy, Democrat of Lincoln, who has been a pioneer in this cause.

The trend among states and nations is to get rid of capital punishment. The two states bordering state of Iowa joined the states abolishing the death penalty some years ago.

Whether Illinois will join this trend is yet to be determined. There will be some strong speeches by sincere men on both sides of this issue before the final vote is taken in the Senate.

Freedom's Meaning

Where men are free, the standards of men of good will are the essential qualities of a successful life and the basis of human dignity and self-respect. The ideals and ethic of men are the source of freedom, justice and equality under an honest government of law.

Educational Standards and Large Tax Sums Ride On School Elections

Unfortunately, but historically, school elections rarely attract large numbers of voters. This apathy is hard to understand, particularly when two basic interests of voters are at stake—the education of their children and the expenditure of most of their tax money.

We hope there will be substantial turnouts next Saturday in Granite City, Madison and Venice. There will be six candidates for the three vacancies. There is no opposition in the Madison and Venice districts.

Granite City voters not only have a wide choice this year, but the quality of the candidates are exceptionally well qualified by experience, education and scope of civil activities.

In alphabetical order, these are Clifton Blankenship, Harry Deatherage, Daniel Linder, president of the Granite City school board, and Royce Timmons. While three are to be elected, at least one must come from the rural area—Blankenship, Deatherage, Timmons.

Voters also should bear in mind that school candidates submit themselves for election to a public office that has no salary.

Granite City Election Officials More Effective Than Poll Tax

Voting in Granite City's three elections Tuesday could not have been more bewildering and confusing if it were a deliberate attempt had been made to keep people away from the polling place.

Some southern states have a poll tax; Granite City makes it virtually impossible for anyone to vote who does not own an automobile. Without a car, the voter needed hours of foot time, a good pair of walking shoes, and had to be sound of mind and body.

To vote in the Granite City township election, we went to 3300 Terrace lane. Then on to 3307 Wabash avenue, vote in the park election, and then to our ballot box at the city offices, we trekked to 3906 Namoki road. Some voters had to travel even farther to exercise their citizenship rights; others just threw up their hands and quit after the first or second stop.

All this hopping around is sheer nonsense and a fundamental injustice to voters. Unification of polling places, coupled with realignment of city wards for equal representation, must be given top priority by city and county authorities.

This will make voting quick and easy for everyone, as it should be.

New Mayor And 10 Freshmen Aldermen Bring Fresh Approach To City Affairs

Although the vote cast in Tuesday's Granite City election was only about 70% of those registered, it was much larger than usual and should afford both winners and losers a degree of satisfaction.

Donald Partney, who amassed over one-third of the nearly 15,000 vote total, will assume the office of mayor after 18 years as alderman and become the first mayor elected in 16 years.

His long experience in city government should provide continuity of administration and, at the same time, bring to city affairs a fresh approach, as outlined in his campaign platform.

It is important now—and particularly since only six of Granite City's 16 aldermen have been on the council over two years—for the aldermen to close ranks in terms of mayor-council relations, not to provide a "rubber stamp" but to deal constructively and effectively with municipal problems.

It is equally important that citizens continue the interest they demonstrated in their government by Tuesday's large turnout. All citizens have a duty to keep informed and to advise officials of their views from time to time.

High goals can thus be achieved and this community can move forward as it should, making each resident the real election winner.

Church Growth Keeping Pace With Population Increase

Latest listings show more than 100 Quad-City churches, and the continuing growth—in number, membership and physical facilities.

The last issue of the Press-Record attests to the trend, reporting groundbreaking ceremonies for a church, a convent and a school addition in the St. Margaret Mary parish and permits for construction of a new Hope Lutheran Church building and erection of the United Pentecostal Church.

Despite rapid population growth, there continue to be churches of adequate size and number to meet the spiritual needs of all local residents.

Pay For City Government Booklet

Now that the diverting influence of the municipal election is over, perhaps the city council can apply itself to a matter that it chose to put aside earlier this year: the booklet on the cost of publishing Mrs. Betnes's 48-page Granite City governmental information booklet.

Although "Betnes's Profile" emphasized more of an individual viewpoint than some of the other aldermen had anticipated, it was a sincere and for the most part objective effort to list facts and suggestions of benefit to voters and taxpayers.

Public opinion on the booklet was in the polling place. Mrs. Betnes, who relinquished her Seventh Ward aldermanic position after two terms to seek the office of mayor, its contents remain available to the editors of the local citizenry.

Her compilation and writing charges were donated. The city ought to pay the printing costs, since the booklet was authorized by the council.

Modern Garden Of Eden—For Monkeys

From time to time there has been a vague suspicion that monkey business was going on in the nation's capital. Now it is established fact.

A woman explorer has come back from the headwaters of the Amazon River to report discovery of a sort of 20th century Eden which she contends would be ideal for the study of the evolution of man.

Her expedition and writing charges were donated. The city ought to pay the printing costs, since the booklet was authorized by the council.

Her Amazon Research Center proposal in effect asks the government to place itself on record as favorably as favoring a foreign monkey business. But it just might make as much sense as many of the developments on the Washington scene?

Transit System, Union Agree on Labor Contract

A wage increase of nine cents an hour and certain improvements in working conditions. Top rate would be $2.90 an hour, plus overtime pay of 1 1/2 times the basic rate.

The transit corporation and Bi-State Transit Agency, Inc., announced yesterday the settlement of terms for a new labor contract with the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, Local 1000.

The settlement was reached through the collective bargaining process. This avoided a strike which would have interrupted the transit service for the Bi-State community.

Never before in our history, have we taught so many students, constructed so many schools, trained so many teachers, and spent such an enormous sum of money on education. I believe that I have the experience necessary, and the interest in our school system to contribute meaningfully to its growth and progress in the years ahead. - His answers:

  3. "An effective school system must avoid operating debts and be managed on a pay as you go basis."
  4. "Serving as a school board member, regardless of what capacity, is a public trust and a community responsibility."
  5. "School policies are primarily the responsibility of the school board. However, such policies on public education must be competent, efficient, and representative of the citizens."

QUESTIONS ASKED SCHOOL CANDIDATES

The following questions were submitted to school board candidates by the Press-Record, and the answers appear with the individual candidate's biographies:

1. Do you favor competitive bidding on all purchases?
2. Do you favor reimbursement of actual, listed expenses rather than fixed expense allowances?
3. Do you favor a "pay as you go" policy rather than borrowing to meet operating costs?

Vets May Qualify for Insurance Waiver

Joseph D. Wetton of the local Illinois Veterans' Commission, stated today that some veterans of world war II and the Korean conflict will be entitled to waiver of premiums on their National Service Life Insurance if they become totally disabled for insurance purposes prior to their 65th birthday. Previously this waiver privilege terminated on their 60th birthday.

Premium payments must be continued until the Veterans Administration has approved the waiver and the individual is notified, Wetton said.

United States Government Life Insurance already includes a valuable disability without age limit, he added.

Wetton, local service officer, has his office in the city hall building in Granite City. The office is open Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

3 Local Cities Involved

Dump Smoke Hearing to be Held by State on May 5

The Illinois Air Pollution Control Board has notified the operators of six open dumps in the Quad-Cities-East St. Louis area to show cause why an order should not be made to direct the discontinuance of burning that is causing air pollution.

A public hearing before the board's hearing officers will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday, May 5, in the council chambers at East St. Louis. Directed to appear are Bud Brown, operator of the Midway Landfill; Edgar LeMear and William Smistek, operators of the Suzanne Landfill and Dump; Melvin Pashea, operator of the Granite City Dump and officials of the cities of Madison, Granite City and Venice.

The board alleges the burning of refuse in these open dumps is causing pollution of the atmosphere in violation of Illinois Air Pollution Control Laws.

The board authorized the hearings and necessary subsequent legal action at its March 26 meeting when operators of the dumps failed to comply with the board's directive requesting the discontinuance of burning by Feb. 20. The hearings will be before three board members.

A 30-day notification for these hearings is required by the Illinois Act.

In such case, a person is required to pay at least 25% of his 1965 estimated income tax no later than April 15, 1965.

Document No. 5111, which contains detailed information on the subject of estimated taxes, is available from the Internal Revenue Service.
